#2.

Hey, hey hey!
Ants in my room... there's tons of ants in my room!
Why are you so worked up over some ants?
You'll see when you know this.
You'll eat a ton of ants without even knowing it.
Ants
Are a great source of protein
THOOF
Survivor?
You idiot, hahaha

Come to think of it
There's no cockroaches in houses with ants
We're using ants to stop cockroaches from coming in
This is the tactic of playing one power off another!
They say that if there's enough resources then cockroaches can work together with ants and live together
...GET
